Experience some culture shock after your first few weeks here in the United States? Come to this session to get a run through of some the basics of U.S. Culture, and what to expect the rest of your time here.

Don’t know what all the fuss is about for some of the celebrations going on around you? Come to this session to go over different holidays celebrated by much of the United States, such as Thanksgiving and Halloween.

Unsure of what to wear this winter, or what you are going to do for all of those frigid months? Come to this session to learn about all the fun opportunities that snow, and colder temperatures can present as well as learn the proper ways to dress for the cold.